Stratford University is an institutional participant and operates under the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA). NC-SARA is an agreement among member states, districts and territories that establishes comparable national standards for interstate offering of post-secondary distance education course and programs. It is intended to make it easier for students to take online courses offered by post-secondary institutions based in another state. Currently, several, but not all states have joined SARA. The NC-SARA maintains a list of member states and institutions that are participants and operate under SARA. See: http://nc-sara.org/

State Education Licensure Information
Stratford University administration operates in the State of Virginia where it is exempt from certification by the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia (SCHEV) to operate campuses in Virginia as it has been properly accredited by an accrediting body recognized by the U.S. Department of Education in excess of 10 consecutive years. Stratford University is also permitted to conduct operations as an out-of-state institution in other states.

State Specific Registration
Stratford University is approved to operate in many U.S. states. This approval was gained through licensure, formal registration, or exemption. Below is the list of states where Stratford University is approved to operate or has applications pending.

Alabama – Stratford University is seeking approval as a non-resident institution by the Alabama Commission on Higher Education and in the process of completing an application. Information will be submitted to the Alabama Department of Postsecondary Education P.O. Box 302130 Montgomery, AL 36130 State of Alabama under Ala. Code 16-5-10 (14) if required.

Alaska – Stratford University is exempt from authorization under AS 14.48 and AS 17.015 since programs are offered online with no physical presence in the state.
